

White-Tailed Deer

I've lived in Pennsylvania nearly all of my life, and thus I have spent a lot of time surrounded by white-tailed deer. Here in the vineyards, we see them often. They are the reason for the extensive high fencing around our vineyards in The Brogue, since they can be quite destructive to grapevines. Outside of the fence, I am thrilled to see them here.

This year we have had several families around, including my favorite, which is a doe and three playful fawns, one of which has an extensive amount of white coloration. The afternoon I got to photo the three of them frolicking in the rain in our field was a great time.
