

Wheel Bug

These large “assassin bugs” are quite remarkable to see, with their armor and shy demeanor. We like them because they prey on Japanese beetles!

They get their name from a circular shape on their backs and can sometimes be hard to see, preferring camouflage to a showy display.

